

Position Description for Lead Director

The Board of Directors (the "Board") of Wallbridge Mining Company Limited. (the "Company") will appoint a Lead Director in circumstances in which the Chair of the Board is not considered independent under applicable laws in order to provide independent leadership, as required, to the Board and for the other purposes set forth below.

If a Lead Director is required, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will recommend a candidate for the position of Lead Director from amongst the independent members of the Board. The Board will be responsible for appointing the Lead Director and approving the Lead Director's remuneration.

The Lead Director will serve at the pleasure of the Board.

The primary role of the Lead Director is to provide as required, independent leadership to the Board and facilitate as required the functioning of the Board independently of the senior officers and the Chair.

The principal duties of the Lead Director are:

- To preside, in the Chair's absence, at Board meetings and the annual meeting of stockholders;
- To provide input to the Board Chair on the frequency, dates and locations of the meetings of the Board and on the preparation of the meeting agendas to ensure the Board efficiently carries out its duties and responsibilities;
- To call and chair all in camera meetings of the independent directors and apprise the Chair of the issues considered, as appropriate;
- To ensure that the Board acts and functions independently from management in fulfilling its fiduciary obligations;
- Together with the Chair and the CEO, to ensure that all required matters are presented to the Board, such that the Board is able to supervise the management of the business and affairs of the Company;
- To attend any and all meetings of the committees of the Board as he or she sees fit and as appropriate;
- To serve as the liaison between the independent directors and the Chair and Chief Executive Officer;
- To collaborate with the Compensation Committee on the annual performance evaluation of the Chair and Chief Executive Officer;
- To collaborate with the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee on the performance and structure of the Board of Directors and its committees, including the performance of individual directors.
