

Wallbridge Mining is a Canadian company conducting advanced exploration work at the Fénélon project located approximately 215 km north of Amos. Wallbridge works continually advance Fenelon towards a resource and economic study with the goal of eventual development of the project. Do you want to join a growing team, eager to do things right and this in an exceptional environment, our organization presents competitive opportunities for you.

The technician geologist will report to the senior technician, the schedule is a 14-day rotation of 10 hours -14 days off.

Geology Technician

Schedule 14/14
Fénélon Project

Job Details

- Open, classify, move and store boxes of drill core.
- Acquire core data (measurement, RQD, alignment of drill core, photo).
- Enter the data on the computer.
- Prepare and send samples to the laboratory.
- Work in the field (inspection of drills and drilling sites).
- Good housekeeping of the workplace.
- Work according to the company's health and safety policies.

Qualifications

- Geology technician or equivalent experience.
- Work experience in mining exploration of one year or more.
- Valid Class 5 driver's license.
- Physically fit and able to lift 35 pounds.
- Basic understanding in Excel, Word and Access.
- FMTM, an asset
- The ability to operate different mechanical equipment (loader, lift) an asset.
- Meticulous, proactive, self-reliant and a good team spirit.
- Basic French for safety reasons.